

Sentences

1. It is tragic to watch a scruffy lad flicking a trapped rat.
2. A stubby branch fell into the middle of a hidden litter bin.
3. Jenny grabbed the ladder and dragged it to her nimble uncle.
4. The slippery snags will sizzle in the scratched pan.
5. A cunning tree-lopper spotted a snappy dresser at the jungle drink stand.
6. At the soccer match, the coach had to struggle with the scratchy blanket.
7. A bundle of the flattest buckles fell with a clatter into the pottery dish.
8. Teddy will snuggle up to his granny for a cuddle.
9. Sally will struggle to shuffle from the gutter if the dropped rattle smashes.
10. Nanny will shuffle in her slippers to the bucket which is propped-up on the steps.
11. Barry was stricken with anger when he spotted the frightened animal.
12. As the thunder banged, Brad squelched in the puddle of mud.

Story

Find the mistakes in this story. Look for spelling mistakes and punctuation that is missing (including full stops, question marks and capital letters to start a sentence or a person's name). Then re-write the story correctly under each line.

The handdy tree-lopper had lefft hies shabby hachet in the boot of his red machbak. on thiss job, he had his strongger truck with a rusty fennder. There was soo mutch rubbish in the boot so he had crammed into the back. He had twenty scratches on his legs from the prikkly brenches. he felt shabby. No hachet! he had skweltched in the mud to skreammble to the next big track to get help. He met a trustfull tramp as he stagerd to the shabby shak next to the ellm tree. The trampp grinned at the angry man.

How do you think this story should finish? On the back of this page, write 4 sentences, or more, to give this story an interesting ending.