

Sentences

Story

1. I don't know whether the foolish man has a jacket or not.
2. The stuffing in the chicken was crunchy.
3. Do not be foolish and stretch the scarf over the griller.
4. Can you see the stars twinkle in the dark sky?
5. The spooky man was thinking he could stitch up the rip in his jacket pocket.
6. A scruffy fool went to the quiz show, thinking he could win.
7. Do not scratch at the scabs on your ankle.
8. The twins had fluffy jackets to keep the sleet from coming on them.
9. The spool of cotton rolled across the floor and under the stool.
10. No matter what the weather is like, we will still be shifting the gutter to the back yard.
11. Lizzy had a ticket to see the marching band at the new cricket pitch.
12. Mitch felt dizzy after sniffing the reef fish on the platter.

I can not tell whether it is sunny or not. This weather is hard to tell. Jenny will give me her scarf which she got at the market. That will stop me getting too cool, even if it drizzles with spots of rain.

We will get the tickets that Mum left in the back pocket of my pink jacket. Jenny thinks it will be fun to see the sharks and the smelly fish from the reef. We will get a packet of chips for lunch.

This trip will be fun no matter what the weather is like!

Questions

1. Why will Jenny give me her scarf?
2. What will we see with Mum's tickets?
3. Where did Mum have the tickets?