

Reading Story Week 16

It was in the middle of the night when the shy boy ran into the spy. He got such a fright that he had left his bike next to mine. He felt that he must try to run away.

The spy grabbed his arm and said the boy must get him a pie to eat. The boy had to tell the lie that all the pies had been eaten.

But, this time, the greedy spy was not happy. He told the boy that, if he did not get him a pie AND some chips, he might die!!!

So, the boy ran to my wife for help. She had to write on a pad for help. This must be the right thing to do. She left the pad at the pie shop, begging for a pie AND some chips.

Well, now my wife, the shy boy and the greedy spy can smile the spy will not be hungry and the shy boy will not die!!!

Questions

1. What happened when the shy boy got a fright?
2. What did the spy want?
3. Who helped the shy boy?
4. Why was everyone happy in the end?

Reading Sentences Week 16

1. The spy left his bike when he got a fright.
2. There was a bright kite high up in the sky.
3. Who can write the street number so that it can shine at night?
4. Their dog could not bite on his white bone with his bad teeth.
5. The shy boy will write a letter to see why the dogs in the next house fight.
6. They were mad to try to eat fifty ripe plums.
7. I might write this in the right way if I can use that bright light.
8. The bride does not see why she must try not to cry.
9. The teacher said that he might give us a rest if we write neatly.
10. Why are there sixteen pigs in that filthy sty?
11. The knight can try to beat this monster in the next fight.
12. Where will I write on this card to your dad when you give him this white tie?