

Reading Story Week 6

Sally and Jimmy went swimming in the pool in the back yard. When they got out they sat and chatted in the hot sun.

“Why don't we go running and then jump back in the pool to cool off?” said Jimmy. They went trotting out on the dusty track. Sally forgot her hat and went dashing back to get it.

Just then, she skidded on a muddy patch and fell, slipping in the middle of the biggest puddle. She got up, feeling very grubby. Jimmy saw this happen. He was clapping his hands because he felt that Sally was so funny, holding her messy dress in her hands.

They ran back to the pool and went jumping in with a big splash!

Questions

1. What did Sally and Jimmy do in the back yard?
2. Why did Sally go back from the track?
3. What happened to her?
4. Why was Jimmy clapping his hands?

Reading Sentences Week 6

1. The biggest dog went swimming in the muddy puddle.
2. Betty trotted around the skinny tree in her garden.
3. Where has Billy hidden the spotty duster?
4. Did the grubby boy happen to get out of the car?
5. Don felt dizzy when he skidded down the back steps.
6. The happy girl was clapping her hands when she saw the dolphin swish his flipper.
7. Ralph had to hobble to our house when he twisted his leg.
8. Mum chatted with her sister about the party next week.
9. Jenny lifted the dusty handle of the rusty bucket.
10. It is funny to think about what will happen when her sister sings.
11. Where did Bessy happen to get that spinning top from?
12. Why did you sit out in the park with that grumpy tramp?