

Reading Story Week 18

The boy will bend at the desk so that he can pick up the lump of dust. He left the rag in the mess on the desk. So he had to get the dust with his hand. His dad was mad at him for this. His mum got him to put the dust in the bin. Then Dad was not mad.

His mum and dad did not see what was on the next desk. It was best that they did not pick up the gift.

When you left the milk next to the black belt on the desk, they got a shock. BUMP!! The cup fell! That left a mess on the desk and the silk gift.

1. Where was the rag left?
2. What must the boy pick up?
3. What was on the next desk?
4. What did the milk do when the cup had a bump?

Reading Sentences Week 18

1. I bent to pick the vest up off the land next to the pool.
2. If you rest on the desk then the lamp will bend.
3. I lost the gift when I went in the mist.
4. Dad sent us to the camp by the pond.
5. Do not bump the milk on top of this silk gift.
6. That belt cost far too much!
7. We went to lift the vest up off the bed for Pop so that he did not have to bend his back.
8. With that big gust of wind, we lost the tent.
9. At dusk, the ant will jump on your limp hand.
10. What did the girl see when she sat on the sand?
11. You must not dump this milk in the punt on the pond.
12. Will you send the rest of the dust to the dump?