

Reading Story Week 34

Beth had a pink sticker in her book. She had been doing her best at school all week. It was only a small thing, but this sticker made her feel good.

She said to Jane, "Did you get one, too?" But Jane was calling out to Jill and she did not get what her friend had said to her.

Jane was calling, "Let's all go out in to the school yard and have fun catching the ball!" But Beth said, "We can not do that because it is not lunch time yet!"

Very soon the bell rang and they all ran out to have fun with the ball by the school gate.
